Something to worry about—Today is Friday the 13th.

"Teach the facts about your home city in the public schools," urges the bureau of municipal research, New York City.

Mrs. Pankhurst has been arrested so often that the London bobbies must be doing it just for the blooming fun there is in it.

Let the fire insurance companies skiddoo from Maysville if they wish. With the "Kinney Mac" and "Uncle Bob" and a fire watchman on every block, we'll get along somehow.

It will be simply awful if we have war with Mexico. We positively are seashore looking at the pictures of our battleships and our old sea-dogs. And then after the war is over we will have to look at 'em 'steeen times more in the movies.

The New York Sun has compiled a list by trades and occupations of the unemployed men in greater New York, and on February 2, there were 331,650.

There are also fully 100,000 women out of employment in that city, according to the statement of the women at the head of the women wage earners.

The bread lines served have to start at one o'clock in the morning in order to supply the hungry by noon. Oh, the days of Cleveland have returned, and the Coxey army is about "to arrive." As they voted so are they reaping—as well as some others.

—Pueblo (Col.) Opinion.

ONE GALLON AND A CASE EACH.

Sixty days thereafter consumers in Mississippi will be limited to one gallon of whisky and one case of beer or other mild beverage per month, and the consignee must certify that the shipment is for personal use. Gov. Bradley approved the May-Mott-Lewis Liquor Bill, which becomes effective May 6.

THE CONFEDERATE HOME.

The number of inmates at the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley is decreasing, but so many of the veterans are in an enfeebled condition that the Trustees of the Home are asking that the appropriation be not decreased. Many of the inmates of the Home are bedridden and require constant attention. Owing to this fact, the expenses of the institution do not diminish with the decrease of the veterans. But for the fact that so many of the old soldiers are helpless the State could save money by pensioning the inmates and closing up the establishment. It will come to this after a while, as the number of veterans there now is too small, considering the magnitude of the Home and the expense of conducting it.—State Journal.

WATCHING THE NERVES.

Sorrowful, indeed, is the experience of the school teacher, as one discovered in Chicago. She had a pupil that failed in her grade purely from lack of application. So she sought the gentle influence of the parent, and she received this answer to her note:

"If you can't Teach—without beating her or using hard words to get her nervous you better suspect her from school. The children tell me you are no good Teacher. —comes home nerves every day all your fault. If your sporting ain't successful to you offer School and evening don't take advantage on the children."

The poor mother did not know that she had more to do with the nerves of her child than the teacher had. All ill-tempered life at home, all disorder there, all bad cooking, all airless bedrooms, all mean gossip, all scolding and threatening, all silly dressing, all late dancing—have more to do with making a child "nervous" than all her experience at school. Writing that letter is enough to confound and exasperate all the nerves of the household.—Ashland Independent.

What the Editors Are Saying About the Operations of the Underwood Free Trade Tariff.

With Free-Trade and inevitable lower prices for the products of the farm, already being realized, the only kind of education that can hope to turn the tide from town and city to country, or that can hope to keep the boys on the farm, must be deceptive—calculated to make them believe what is not really true.—Up-to-date Farming.

Australians are building big ships to carry freight to the United States. That is what the Democratic Tariff has done to help the antipodes. There are no indications that the American mercantile marine is helped by the new schedules.—Troy (N. Y.) Times.

The Democratic press is laboring overtime in telling the people about the prosperous times now upon us. They also told us about how the high cost of living would be reduced when the Tariff was revised downward.—Louisiana (Mo.) News.

Some Argentine corn is already being fed in Kansas. Talk about there being no Tariff on corn. Farmers will soon find out on which side their bread is buttered.—Marshall (Mo.) Republican.

The Tariff reduction on woollens is expected "to be absorbed in handling." This is one of the few things not passed on to the ultimate consumer.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Democratic party promised to revise the Tariff downward in the interest of consumers. The price lists afford no evidence of benefit derived by consumers.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. Taft's reciprocity provoked Canada to a wild political explosion, but it seems to welcome the same sort provided by the new Tariff very complacently.—Memphis (Mo.) Revere.

It is stated in Washington that President Wilson has decided to follow a policy that will permit business to get back on a basis of confidence. Wonder if he does intend to kill the Free-Trade bill?—Moravian Falls (N. C.) Yellow Jacket.

The surprising thing about a Kentucky Legislature is that it ever accomplishes anything at all.

There are now twenty-six days in a year recognized as legitimate occasions for holidays in most cities in England.

With Jack London and John Lawrence Sullivan running for office as Prohibitionists it could not truthfully be said that the dry ticket was lacking in "the punch."—New York Sun.

"Good heavens! Suppose the nurse would let that baby fall!"

BRONCHITIS CONQUERED

Royersford, Pa., Man Tells How.

At this season of year with such sudden changes, it is so easy to take cold, and almost before one is aware there is inflammation in the bronchial tubes—a hard cough and unless checked in time chronic pulmonary troubles may result.

Townsend Young of Royersford, Pa., says: "A severe bronchial trouble contracted caused me much difficulty about breathing. My chest felt clogged up and there was considerable soreness. I tried different remedies without help; but I am glad to say that Vinol cured my bronchial trouble which had lasted for three months. My breathing is all right and the soreness entirely gone from my chest."

Vinol contains the curative, healing principles of fresh cods' livers (without oil) and tonic iron. We guarantee it to be delicious in taste and to satisfy you with its medicinal effects. J. C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

C. AND O'S PLANE.

George W. Stevens, President of the C. and O., says: "At the current rate of earnings Chesapeake and Ohio will earn 7 per cent. upon stock in the fiscal year ending June 30 next. This will leave a margin of 3 per cent. above dividend requirements. On July 1 next the Hocking Valley expects to begin construction of an extension south from Columbus to make a direct connection with the C. and O. main line at Portsmouth, a distance of about 90 miles. This work will take two years to complete and will be financed separately. It is expected that C. and O. will derive sufficient coal tonnage from this connection to more than warrant the expenditure. At present C. and O. makes its connection with the Hocking Valley over the Kanawha and Michigan, either from Gauley, W. Va., or Point Pleasant."
